Barclays PLC Notice of Annual General Meeting

When considering what action you should take, you are recommended to seek your own personal financial advice immediately from your stockbroker, bank manager, solicitor, accountant or other professional adviser duly authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000. If you have sold or transferred all your shares in Barclays PLC please send this Notice of AGM and the accompanying Proxy Form to the person you sold or transferred your shares to, or to the bank, stockbroker or other agent who arranged the sale or transfer for you.

All of the Directors, with the exception of Tim Breedon and Diane de Saint Victor who both recently joined the Board, have been subject to a formal and rigorous performance evaluation process, further details of which may be found in the Evaluation Statement in the 2012 Annual Report (which is available at www.barclays.com). I can confirm that, following the performance evaluation, each of the Directors is considered to be fully effective by the Board, having demonstrated the commitment and behaviours expected of a Barclays Director in line with our Charter of Expectations for Directors (available at www.barclays.com/corporategovernance). Each Director brings valuable skills and experience to the Board and its Committees, ensuring they are able to discharge their respective duties and responsibilities effectively. The Board has also concluded that each of the non-executive Directors standing for reappointment are independent when assessed against the criteria set out in the UK Corporate Governance Code. The biographical details of each of the Directors are included in the Notice of AGM.

Dear Shareholder

This year's Annual General Meeting (the 'AGM') will be held on Thursday 25 April 2013 at the Royal Festival Hall, London. The Notice of AGM is set out on pages 3 to 10.

This is my first AGM as Chairman of Barclays, having succeeded Marcus Agius on 1 November 2012. The circumstances of my appointment as Chairman are well-known. You will have your own views and questions on the events of last year and on our strategy of becoming the 'Go-To' bank, and we encourage you to use the meeting as an opportunity to express these by attending, raising questions and voting. Details of how you can vote if you cannot attend the meeting, including details of the e-voting process, can be found on page 16 of the Notice of AGM.

All of the current Directors are each submitting themselves for reappointment, with the exception of Sir Andrew Likierman. Sir Andrew has decided not to seek reappointment as he reaches his 9 year anniversary on the Board this September. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Sir Andrew on behalf of the Board for the valuable contribution he has made during what has been a critical period for Barclays. He will retire as a Director at the conclusion of the AGM.

I would like to draw your attention to the fact that, as well as the usual business of the AGM, the Board is proposing four items of additional business (resolutions 20, 21, 24 and 25) and would encourage you to read the accompanying explanatory notes.

The Board believes that all of the proposals set out in the Notice of AGM are in the best interests of shareholders as a whole and the Company and unanimously recommends that you vote in favour of all the resolutions, as the Directors intend to do in respect of their own beneficial holdings.

Notice of AGM

Notice is hereby given that the 2013 Annual General Meeting (the 'AGM') of Barclays PLC (the 'Company') will be held at the Royal Festival Hall, Southbank Centre, Belvedere Road, London SE1 8XX on Thursday 25 April 2013 at 11.00am to transact the following business:

Resolutions

To consider and, if thought fit, to pass the following resolutions, with those numbered 1 to 18 and resolutions 20 and 24 being proposed as ordinary resolutions and those numbered 19, 21 to 23 and 25 as special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution must receive more than half the votes cast in order to be passed. Special resolutions require at least three-quarters of the votes cast to be in favour.

Report and Accounts

1. That the Reports of the Directors and Auditors and the audited accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2012, now laid before the meeting, be received.

We are required by the Companies Act 2006 (the 'Act') to present to the AGM the Reports of the Directors and Auditors and the audited accounts of the Company for each financial year (in this case for the financial year ended 31 December 2012).

The Company's Articles of Association permit the Board to pay interim and final dividends. We use this authority rather than seeking shareholder approval of the final dividend, as to do so would delay its payment to you. The final dividend for the financial year ended 31 December 2012 will be paid on 15 March 2013.

Remuneration Report

2. That the Remuneration Report for the year ended 31 December 2012, now laid before the meeting, be approved.

The Act requires quoted companies to present to the AGM for approval the Remuneration Report (which appears in full in the 2012 Annual Report and in summary in the 2012 Annual Review).

From 1988-92 he was Chairman of the Securities & Investment Board and, ex officio, a nominated member of the Council of Lloyd's over the same period. He was a non-executive member of the Court of the Bank of England from 1988-1993. Reappointment of Auditors

15. That PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Chartered Accountants and Statutory Auditors, be reappointed as auditors of the Company to hold office from the conclusion of this meeting until the conclusion of the next AGM at which accounts are laid before the Company.

The Act requires that auditors are reappointed at each AGM at which accounts are presented. The Board, on the unanimous recommendation of the Board Audit Committee, which has evaluated the effectiveness and independence of the Company's external auditors, is proposing the reappointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.

Auditors' Remuneration

16. That the Directors be authorised to set the remuneration of the auditors.

We may set the remuneration of the auditors if authorised to do so by the shareholders. This resolution seeks that authority. Details of the remuneration paid to our external auditors for 2012 and details of how we monitor the effectiveness and independence of our external auditors may be found in the 2012 Annual Report.

Political Donations

17. That, in accordance with section 366 of the Companies Act 2006 (the 'Act') the Company and any company which, at any time during the period for which this resolution has effect, is a subsidiary of the Company, be and are hereby authorised to:

(a) make political donations to political organisations not exceeding £25,000 in total; and

(b) incur political expenditure not exceeding £100,000 in total,

in each case during the period commencing on the date of this resolution and ending on the date of the AGM of the Company to be held in 2014 or on 30 June 2014, whichever is the earlier, provided that the maximum amounts referred to in (a) and (b) may consist of sums in any currency converted into Sterling at such rate as the Board may in its absolute discretion determine. For the purposes of this resolution, the terms 'political donations', 'political organisations' and 'political expenditure' shall have the meanings given to them in sections 363 to 365 of the Act.

Barclays does not give any money for political purposes in the UK nor does it make any donations to EU political organisations or incur EU political expenditure. However, the definitions of political donations and political expenditure used in the Act are very wide. As a result, they may cover activities that form part of relationships that are an accepted part of engaging with our stakeholders to ensure that issues and concerns affecting our operations are considered and addressed, but which would not be considered as political donations or political expenditure in the layman's sense. The activities referred to above are not designed to support any political party nor to influence public support for any political party. The authority we are requesting is similar to that given by shareholders at the AGM in 2012 and is a precautionary measure to ensure that the Barclays Group does not inadvertently breach the Act.

General Authority to Allot Equity Securities

18. That, in substitution for all existing authorities but without prejudice to any authority granted pursuant to resolution 20 (if passed), the Directors be and are hereby generally and unconditionally authorised pursuant to section 551 of the Act to exercise all the powers of the Company to:

(a) allot shares (as defined in section 540 of the Act) in the Company or grant rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into shares in the Company up to an aggregate nominal amount of £1,111,721,894, $77,500,000, €40,000,000 and ¥4,000,000,000; and

(b) allot equity securities (as defined in section 560 of the Act) up to an aggregate nominal amount of £2,143,443,788 (such amount to be reduced by the aggregate nominal amount of ordinary shares allotted or rights to subscribe for or to convert any securities into ordinary shares in the Company granted under paragraph (a) of this resolution 18) in connection with an offer by way of a rights issue:

(i) to ordinary shareholders in proportion (as nearly as may be practicable) to their existing holdings; and

(ii) to holders of other equity securities (as defined in section 560 of the Act) as required by the rights of those securities, or subject to such rights, as the Directors otherwise consider necessary,

and so that the Directors may impose any limits or restrictions and make any arrangements which they consider necessary or appropriate to deal with treasury shares, fractional entitlements, record dates, legal, regulatory or practical problems in, or under the laws of, any territory or any other matter, such authorities to apply (unless previously renewed, varied or revoked by the Company in General Meeting) for the period expiring at the end of the AGM of the Company to be held in 2014 or until the close of business on 30 June 2014, whichever is the earlier but, in each case, so that the Company may make offers and enter into agreements before the authority expires which would, or might require shares to be allotted or rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into shares to be granted after the authority expires and the Directors may allot shares or grant such rights under any such offer or agreement as if the authority had not expired.

Resolution 18 is divided into two parts which, in total, will give Barclays authority to allot all of the preference shares (denominated in Sterling and other currencies) that were created in 2008 and, in certain circumstances (explained below), up to an amount approximately equal to two-thirds of the Company's current issued ordinary share capital (excluding shares held in treasury). As at 28 February 2013, the Company did not hold any treasury shares.

Paragraph (a) of the resolution will give us a general authority to allot all of the unissued preference shares in the Company and up to a maximum aggregate nominal amount of £1,071,721,894 of ordinary shares, being equivalent to one-third of the Company's issued ordinary share capital as at 28 February 2013.

Paragraph (b) of the resolution will give authority to us to allot up to a further one-third of the current issued ordinary share capital, provided that the allotment is made in connection with a rights issue (an offer made to existing holders allowing them to purchase securities in proportion to their existing holding) in favour of holders of equity securities (which would include ordinary shareholders).

The amount in paragraph (b) would be reduced by the nominal amount of ordinary shares already issued or assigned under the authority conferred by paragraph (a) of this resolution, so that we would not have the power to issue in total more than two-thirds of the current issued ordinary share capital pursuant to the authority granted by this resolution. However, if resolution 20 is passed, we would have the additional authority to allot shares or grant rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into shares up to an amount approximately equal to 26% of the Company's issued ordinary share capital (excluding shares held in treasury) as at 28 February 2013, as further described in resolution 20.

Resolution 18 is in line with guidance issued by the Association of British Insurers (ABI). The Directors are also seeking authority under resolution 20 for the issuance of contingent Equity Conversion Notes (ECNs) that automatically convert into or are exchanged for ordinary shares in the Company in prescribed circumstances. This additional authority for ECNs is not contemplated by the guidance issued by the ABI but has been discussed with the ABI. For further details of the ECNs, refer to Appendix 1.

We have no current plans to make use of the authority sought under this resolution 18 except, if resolution 24 is passed, to undertake the Company's Scrip Dividend Programme. The authority is, however, sought to ensure that the Company has maximum flexibility in managing the Group's capital resources. We seek annual renewal of this authority in accordance with best practice.

This authority would remain in force until the end of the AGM in 2014 or the close of business on 30 June 2014, whichever is the earlier. Where the additional authority described in paragraph (b) of this resolution is used, all Directors would be required to stand for reappointment at the next AGM, although our usual practice is that Directors stand for reappointment annually.

Authority to Allot Equity Securities for Cash or to Sell Treasury Shares other than on a Pro-rata Basis to Shareholders

19. That, in substitution for all existing powers but without prejudice to any power granted pursuant to resolution 21 (if passed), and subject to the passing of resolution 18, the Directors be generally empowered pursuant to section 570 of the Act to allot equity securities (as defined in section 560 of the Act) for cash, pursuant to the authority granted by resolution 18 and/or where the allotment constitutes an allotment of equity securities by virtue of section 560(3) of the Act, in each case free of the restriction in section 561 of the Act, such power to be limited:

(a) to the allotment of equity securities in connection with an offer of equity securities (but in the case of an allotment pursuant to the authority granted by paragraph (b) of resolution 18, such power shall be limited to the allotment of equity securities in connection with an offer by way of a rights issue only):

(i) to ordinary shareholders in proportion (as nearly as may be practicable) to their existing holdings; and

(ii) to holders of other equity securities (as defined in section 560 of the Act), as required by the rights of those securities or, subject to such rights, as the Directors otherwise consider necessary,

and so that the Directors may impose any limits or restrictions and make any arrangements which they consider necessary or appropriate to deal with treasury shares, fractional entitlements, record dates, legal, regulatory or practical problems in, or under the laws of, any territory or any other matter; and

(b) to the allotment of equity securities, pursuant to the authority granted by paragraph (a) of resolution 18 and/or an allotment which constitutes an allotment of equity securities by virtue of section 560(3) of the Act (in each case otherwise than in the circumstances set out in paragraph (a) of this resolution) up to a nominal amount of £160,758,284 representing no more than 5% of the issued ordinary share capital as at 28 February 2013; compliance with that limit shall be calculated, in the case of equity securities which are rights to subscribe for, or to convert securities into, ordinary shares (as defined in section 560 of the Act) by reference to the aggregate nominal amount of relevant shares which may be allotted pursuant to such rights, such power to apply (unless previously renewed, varied or revoked by the Company in General Meeting) until the end of the Company's next AGM after this resolution is passed (or, if earlier, until the close of business on 30 June 2014) but so that the Company may make offers and enter into agreements before the power expires which would, or might, require equity securities to be allotted after the power expires and the Directors may allot equity securities under any such offer or agreement as if the power had not expired.

If we allot new equity securities or sell treasury shares for cash (other than in connection with an employees' share scheme), we are required by the Act to first offer the securities to existing shareholders in proportion to their existing holdings (known as pre-emption rights) but we may seek shareholder approval to disapply pre-emption rights or issue equity securities on a non-pre-emptive basis.

The effect of this resolution is to renew the authority given to us in previous years to allot equity securities (which for these purposes includes the sale of treasury shares) on a non-pre-emptive basis to ordinary shareholders by way of a rights issue, for example where legal or practical difficulties in jurisdictions outside the UK may prevent the allocation of shares on a pro-rata basis. It would also allow us to allot a limited number of equity securities for cash (up to approximately 5% of the current issued ordinary share capital) without first offering them to existing shareholders. In addition, the Company is seeking authority under resolution 21 for the issuance of ECNs, or shares to be issued upon conversion or exchange of ECNs, without first offering those equity securities to existing shareholders.

The authority in this resolution 19 would remain in force until the end of the AGM in 2014 or the close of business on 30 June 2014, whichever is the earlier.

We seek annual renewal of this authority in accordance with best practice. We have no current plans to make use of the authority contemplated by this resolution 19 but wish to ensure that the Company has maximum flexibility in managing the Group's capital resources. The Company does not intend to issue more than 7.5% of its issued ordinary share capital on a non-pre-emptive basis in any three year period in exercise of the authority contemplated by this resolution 19. However, if passed, resolutions 20 and 21 would allow this level to be exceeded for the issuance of ECNs, or conversion or exchange of ECNs.

Additional General Authority to Allot Equity Securities in relation to the issuance of contingent Equity Conversion Notes (ECNs)

20. That, in addition to any authority granted pursuant to resolution 18 (if passed), the Directors be and are hereby generally and unconditionally authorised pursuant to section 551 of the Act to exercise all the powers of the Company to allot shares (as defined in section 540 of the Act) in the Company or grant rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into shares in the Company up to an aggregate nominal amount of £825,000,000 in relation to any issue by the Company or any member of the Barclays Group of contingent equity conversion notes that automatically convert into or are exchanged for ordinary shares in the Company in prescribed circumstances ('ECNs') where the Directors consider that such an issuance of ECNs would be desirable in connection with, or for the purposes of, complying with or maintaining compliance with the regulatory capital requirements or targets applicable to the Barclays Group from time to time, such authority to apply (unless previously renewed, varied or revoked by the Company in General Meeting) until the end of the AGM of the Company to be held in 2014 (or, if earlier, until the close of business on 30 June 2014) but so that the Company may make offers and enter into agreements before the authority expires which would, or might require shares to be allotted or rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into shares to be granted after the authority expires and the Directors may allot shares or grant such rights under any such offer or agreement as if the authority had not expired.

The effect of this resolution is to give the Directors the authority to allot shares and grant rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into ordinary shares in the Company up to an aggregate nominal amount of £825,000,000, representing approximately 26% of the Company's issued ordinary share capital as at 28 February 2013, such authority to be exercised in connection with the issue of ECNs. Please see Appendix 1 for more information on ECNs.

This authority is in addition to the authority proposed in resolution 18, which is the usual authority sought on an annual basis in line with guidance issued by the Association of British Insurers (ABI). Although this authority is not contemplated by the guidance issued by the ABI, it has been discussed with the ABI.

The authority sought in this resolution 20 will be utilised as considered desirable to comply with or maintain compliance with regulatory capital requirements or targets applicable to the Barclays Group.

The authority will remain in force until the end of the AGM in 2014 or the close of business on 30 June 2014, whichever is earlier. The Company is intending to seek a similar authority on an annual basis.

Authority to Allot Equity Securities for Cash other than on a Pro-rata Basis to Shareholders in relation to the issuance of contingent Equity Conversion Notes (ECNs)

21. That, in addition to the power granted pursuant to resolution 19 (if passed), and subject to the passing of resolution 20, the Directors be generally empowered pursuant to section 570 of the Act to allot equity securities (as defined in section 560 of the Act) for cash pursuant to the authority granted by resolution 20, free of the restriction in section 561 of the Act, such power to apply (unless previously renewed, varied or revoked by the Company in General Meeting) until the end of the AGM of the Company to be held in 2014 (or, if earlier, until the close of business on 30 June 2014) but so that the Company may make offers and enter into agreements before the power expires which would, or might, require equity securities to be allotted after the power expires and the Directors may allot equity securities under any such offer or agreement as if the power had not expired.

The effect of this resolution 21 is to give the Directors authority to allot ECNs, or shares issued upon conversion or exchange of ECNs, without first offering them to existing shareholders. This will allow the Company to manage its capital in the most efficient and economic way for the benefit of shareholders.

If passed, this resolution will authorise the Directors to allot shares and grant rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into shares in the Company on a non-pre-emptive basis up to an aggregate nominal amount of £825,000,000, representing approximately 26% of the Company's issued ordinary share capital as at 28 February 2013, such authority to be exercised in connection with the issue of ECNs.

Should a Trigger Event occur (please see Appendix 1 for more information on ECNs and their Trigger Events) the ECNs will convert into or be exchanged for Barclays ordinary shares. The Directors intend to give shareholders the opportunity to purchase the ordinary shares created on conversion or exchange of any ECNs on a pro rata basis, where practicable and subject to applicable laws and regulations.

The authority sought in this resolution 21 will be utilised as considered desirable to comply with or maintain compliance with regulatory capital requirements or targets applicable to the Barclays Group.

The authority will remain in force until the end of the AGM in 2014 or the close of business on 30 June 2014, whichever is earlier. The Company is intending to seek a similar authority on an annual basis.

Purchase of own Shares

22. That the Company be generally and unconditionally authorised for the purposes of section 701 of the Act to make market purchases (within the meaning of section 693 of the Act) on the London Stock Exchange of up to an aggregate of 1,286,066,272 ordinary shares of 25p each in its capital, and may hold such shares as treasury shares, provided that:

(a) the minimum price (exclusive of expenses) which may be paid for each ordinary share is not less than 25p;

(b) the maximum price (exclusive of expenses) which may be paid for each ordinary share shall not be more than the higher of:

(i) 105% of the average of the market values of the ordinary shares (as derived from the Daily Official List of the London Stock Exchange) for the five business days immediately preceding the date on which the purchase is made; and

(ii) that stipulated by Article 5(1) of the Buy-back and Stabilisation Regulation (EC 2273/2003); and

(c) unless previously renewed, varied or revoked by the Company in General Meeting, the authority conferred by this resolution shall expire at the end of the AGM of the Company to be held in 2014 or the close of business on 30 June 2014, whichever is the earlier (except in relation to any purchase of shares the contract for which was concluded before such date and which would or might be executed wholly or partly after such date).

This resolution would enable the Company to buy back its own ordinary shares in the market. We consider it desirable to have the general authority to do this in order to provide maximum flexibility in the management of the Group's capital resources. However, we would only use the authority if we were satisfied at the time that to do so would be in the interests of shareholders and would lead to an increase in the Group's earnings per share.

The authority would be restricted to a maximum of 1,286,066,272 ordinary shares. This is not more than 10% of the issued share capital as at 28 February 2013.

Should we decide to purchase some of the Company's own shares, existing rights to subscribe for shares would represent a marginally increased proportion of the current issued share capital. Details are as follows:

- The total number of ordinary shares that may be issued on the exercise of outstanding options as at 28 February 2013 was 151,277,917, which represented approximately 1.18% of the issued share capital at that date. As at 28 February 2013, there were no warrants over ordinary shares outstanding.
- If the Company were to purchase shares up to the maximum permitted by this resolution, the proportion of ordinary shares subject to outstanding options would represent approximately 1.31% of the issued share capital as at 28 February 2013.
- Under the Act, the Company may hold any shares bought back in treasury, which may then either be sold for cash, transferred for the purposes of an employees' share scheme (subject, if necessary, to approval by shareholders at a General Meeting) or cancelled. The Company therefore has the choice of either cancelling or holding in treasury any of its shares which it purchases. If the Company buys any of its shares under the authority given by this resolution, we will decide at the time of purchase whether to cancel them immediately or to hold them in treasury. In relation to treasury shares, we would also have regard to any investor guidelines in relation to the purchase of shares intended to be held in treasury or in relation to their holding or resale which may be in force at the time of any such purchase, holding or resale.

General Meetings

23. That the Directors be and are hereby authorised to call general meetings (other than an AGM) on not less than 14 clear days' notice, such authority to expire at the end of the AGM of the Company to be held in 2014 or the close of business on 30 June 2014, whichever is the earlier.

The Act requires listed companies to call general meetings on at least 21 clear days' notice unless shareholders have approved the calling of general meetings at shorter notice. Barclays wishes to retain the option of calling general meetings, other than an AGM, on 14 clear days' notice and the effect of this resolution is to continue to give the Directors the power to call general meetings on a notice period of not less than 14 clear days. However, as Barclays has a global shareholder base, in practice, we would always aim to give a longer notice period to ensure overseas shareholders in particular are able to participate fully. The 14 day notice period would therefore only be used in exceptional circumstances where the flexibility is merited by the business of the meeting and is thought to be to the advantage of shareholders as a whole. The resolution is valid up to the end of the next AGM or the close of business on 30 June 2014, whichever is the earlier, and it is our intention to renew the authority at each AGM. The Company offers the facility for all shareholders to vote by electronic means. This is accessible to all shareholders and would be available if the Company was to call meetings on 14 clear days' notice. The Company also provides the ability to appoint proxies electronically through CREST and shareholders can vote online at www.barclays.com/investorrelations/vote.

Authority to introduce a Scrip Dividend Programme

24. That the Directors be authorised to exercise the power contained in Article 132 of the Company's Articles of Association so that, to the extent and on such terms and conditions determined by the Directors, the holders of ordinary shares be permitted to elect to receive new ordinary shares credited as fully paid instead of cash in respect of all or part of any future dividend (including any interim dividend), declared or paid by the Directors or declared by the Company in general meeting (as the case may be), during the period commencing on the date of this resolution and ending on the earlier of 24 April 2018 and the beginning of the fifth AGM of the Company following the date of this resolution to the extent that the Directors decide, at their discretion, to offer a scrip dividend alternative in respect of such dividend.

Resolution 24 will allow the Directors to introduce a Scrip Dividend Programme (the 'Programme') providing ordinary shareholders with the option to receive new fully paid ordinary shares in Barclays in place of their cash dividend.

The Programme will enable Barclays shareholders and Sharestore members to increase their shareholding in the Company without incurring dealing costs or stamp duty. The Programme will also allow Barclays greater flexibility in managing our capital resources by retaining cash within the business.

The Programme is intended to replace the current Dividend Reinvestment Plan (DRIP) for holders of ordinary shares, which facilitates the reinvestment of their cash dividends in ordinary shares purchased on the London Stock Exchange.

It is the Directors' current intention that the DRIP will be withdrawn before the payment of the first dividend to which the Programme applies.

The Directors will retain discretion to decide whether to offer a Scrip dividend alternative in respect of each future dividend. However, it is the Directors' current intention to offer the Programme for each quarterly dividend paid following introduction of the Programme.

The Directors will also retain discretion to withdraw the offer of a Scrip dividend alternative should they feel it is in the best interests of shareholders to do so.

Further details of the Programme are included in Appendix 2. Prior to introducing the Programme, shareholders will be sent full details of the Programme's terms and conditions and instructions on how to participate.

In line with investor protection guidelines, and in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association, the authority contained in this resolution is sought for five years. Unless circumstances change, we would expect to seek an extension of this authority before it expires.

It is our intention to offer a similar programme for American Depositary Receipt ('ADR') holders. If this is not possible, the ADR dividend reinvestment alternative will continue in order to ensure ADR holders continue to have the opportunity to reinvest their dividends in Barclays shares. The conversion of Barclays shares into ADRs under a Scrip dividend programme may be subject to Stamp Duty Reserve Tax and issuance fees.

The replacement of the DRIP with the Programme will not affect employees who receive dividend shares under the Barclays Group Share Incentive Plan or its global equivalents. Such plans operate separately and will continue to do so.

Amendment to Articles of Association

25. That, subject to the passing of resolution 24, article 132 of the Articles of Association of the Company be and is hereby altered by inserting the following as a new article 132.10 immediately after the full-stop at the end of article 132.9.2:

"For the purposes of this article 132, each participant in the Company's dividend reinvestment plan for holders of ordinary shares (a "DRIP participant" and the "DRIP" respectively) at midnight (UK time) on an effective date to be determined at the discretion of the board in connection with the commencement of the Company's scrip dividend programme (the "effective time") (and whether or not the DRIP shall subsequently be terminated or suspended) shall be deemed to have elected to receive ordinary shares, credited as fully paid, instead of cash, on the terms and subject to the conditions of the Company's scrip dividend programme as from time to time in force, in respect of the whole of each dividend payable (but for such election) after the effective time (and whether such dividend is declared before, at or after such an effective time) in respect of which the right to receive such ordinary shares instead of cash is made available, until such time as such deemed election mandate is revoked or deemed to be revoked in accordance with the procedure established by the board. The deemed election provided for in the foregoing provision of this article 132.10 shall not apply if and to the extent that the board so determines at any time and from time to time either for all cases or in relation to any person or class of persons or any holding of any person or class of persons."

Resolution 25 proposes a change to the Company's Articles of Association which, subject to the passing of resolution 24, will allow shareholders who participate in the DRIP on an ongoing basis to be automatically enrolled in the Programme unless they decide to tell us otherwise. Shareholders will be given the opportunity to opt-out before the first dividend to which the Programme applies, and at any time afterwards by contacting The Registrar to Barclays.

Ordinarily, in order to replace the DRIP with a Scrip Dividend Programme, DRIP participants would need to sign a new form confirming their participation in the Programme. However, as part of our ongoing commitment to shareholder service, we are proposing this special resolution to amend article 132 of the Company's Articles of Association to allow DRIP participants to be treated as having elected to participate in the Programme (for which approval is sought in resolution 24), without the administrative burden of signing and returning a new form, recognising that shareholders who currently participate in the DRIP have already confirmed that they wish to receive ordinary shares in the Company in place of cash dividends until they tell us otherwise.

If passed, this deemed election would apply subject to any decision of the Directors to the contrary.

Further details of these arrangements are provided in Appendix 2. The terms and conditions of the Programme will be sent to shareholders and Sharestore members and made available on the www.barclays.com/dividends when the Programme is introduced.

Employees who receive dividend shares under the Barclays Group Share Incentive Plan or its global equivalents will not be affected by this change. Such plans operate separately and will continue to do so.

Your Questions Answered on Equity Conversion Notes ('ECNs')

Why is Barclays seeking authority to issue ECNs?

To continue to operate as a bank, Barclays must meet minimum regulatory capital requirements in the countries in which it operates. To maintain an efficient capital structure, that protects the interests of ordinary shareholders under new prudential regulatory requirements, Barclays may need to hold at least 1.5% of its Risk Weighted Assets in the form of Additional Tier 1 Capital. That Additional Tier 1 Capital must be in the form of Contingent Capital sometimes called CoCos. The capital issued to meet this requirement can currently either be in the form of Permanent Write Down Notes or ECNs and may be issued by Barclays or another member of the Barclays Group. Barclays has already issued $3bn of Permanent Write Down Notes in Tier 2 Capital Form but the flexibility to issue CoCos in ECN form enables essential diversification and efficiency. Therefore, shareholder approval is now being sought in resolutions 20 and 21 to authorise the issue of ECNs and/or shares to be issued on conversion or exchange of ECNs. It is not Barclays intention to use CoCos as part of compensation structures.

What is a Trigger Event and what will happen?

Should Barclays Common Equity Tier 1 Ratio fall below 7% (the 'Trigger Event'), any ECNs would be converted into or exchanged for new Barclays ordinary shares. Permanent Write Down Notes would cease to have any value.

What steps can Barclays take before or on a Trigger Event?

In advance of and after a Trigger Event, Barclays management can be expected to take certain actions:

(i) Recovery Planning – Barclays is required by its regulators to have in place a Recovery Plan in case Barclays capital position should come under pressure. Should Barclays capital ratios fall, Barclays would be required to commence those planned recovery actions to improve its capital position (e.g., by reducing Risk-Weighted Assets, through a rights issue of ordinary shares or by seeking financial support from certain investors) well in advance of a Trigger Event. In the case of the launch of a rights issue, Barclays ordinary shareholders would be offered the opportunity to acquire new ordinary shares in proportion to their existing Barclays shareholding (subject to legal, regulatory or practical restrictions).

(ii) Shareholder Participation – should a Trigger Event occur (despite taking recovery actions), the Directors intend to give shareholders the opportunity to purchase the ordinary shares issued on conversion or exchange of any ECNs on a pro rata basis, where practicable and subject to applicable laws and regulations, at the same price as the holders of the ECNs would have acquired the ordinary shares. This mechanism for shareholder participation will be written into the terms and conditions of the ECNs.

The circumstances in which a Trigger Event might be expected to occur are considered to be remote given the level of capital Barclays holds in excess of the trigger level and the recovery actions it would take should such a situation seem likely to arise.

Will all ECNs be in the form of Additional Tier 1 Capital?

No. In the February 2013 Strategic Review, Barclays communicated its 'target end state' capital structure to the market. This includes 2% of Risk Weighted Assets in Contingent Capital – 1.5% in Additional Tier 1 Capital and 0.5% in Tier 2 Capital. As the new prudential regulatory requirements are phased in and Barclays manages its stock of legacy Tier 1 capital instruments, the proportion of CoCos (and therefore ECNs) held in Additional Tier 1 and Tier 2 form will fluctuate as Barclays transitions to its end state structure in the most efficient manner.

How does Additional Tier 1 Capital provide a more efficient capital structure?

Additional Tier 1 Capital is expected to be a cheaper form of capital than issuing new ordinary shares, lowering Barclays on-going costs for the benefit of all shareholders.

Holding Additional Tier 1 Capital also adds value to shareholders. In the February 2013 Strategic Review, Barclays announced a target Common Equity Tier 1 Ratio of 10.5%. Under new prudential regulatory requirements, holding 10.5% Common Equity Tier 1 and no Additional Tier 1 would mean there would be an increased risk of Barclays being restricted in its ability to make certain distributions, including paying dividends to ordinary shareholders. Additional Tier 1 Capital, including issuance in ECN form, therefore provides a buffer before restrictions on distributions apply.

At what price will the ECNs be converted into or exchanged for ordinary shares?

The terms and conditions for the ECNs will specify a Conversion Price or a mechanism for setting a Conversion Price for the ECNs, that is the rate at which the ECNs will be exchanged for ordinary shares.

How have you calculated the size of the authorities you are seeking?

The size of the authorities reflected in Resolutions 20 and 21 has been calculated based on Barclays target end state capital structure designed to meet the expected capital requirements under new prudential regulatory requirements. That structure includes 2% of Risk Weighted Assets in Contingent Capital. The resolutions give the Directors authority to set the specific terms of the ECNs after considering market conventions at the time. The authorities sought are set at a level to provide maximum flexibility to Barclays in managing its capital structure efficiently given the uncertainties that remain in both the precise regulatory requirements and the market for this new form of capital instrument.

No action relating to participation in the Scrip Dividend Programme needs to be taken at this time. The purpose of this Appendix is to provide shareholders and Sharestore members with summary information so that they may consider how they wish to vote in respect of Resolutions 24 and 25.

Your Questions Answered on the Scrip Dividend Programme (the 'Programme')

Further information regarding the Programme

The Board is recommending to shareholders that they authorise the introduction of the Programme in respect of future dividends. The Programme is intended to replace the current Dividend Reinvestment Plan ('DRIP') for holders of ordinary shares.

Subject to shareholder approval, it is intended that the Programme will apply at the earliest to the second interim dividend for the year ending 31 December 2013, which is expected to be announced at the end of July 2013 and paid in mid-September 2013. The DRIP will remain in place until the Programme is launched and any dividend paid in June will be offered to shareholders as a cash dividend with the additional option of acquiring further shares under the DRIP.

Participation in the Programme will be subject to and in accordance with full terms and conditions, which will be sent to shareholders and Sharestore members and made available on www.barclays.com/dividends when the Programme is launched.

Shareholder approval to authorise the introduction of the Programme is being sought at the AGM on Thursday 25 April 2013. If approved, this authority will expire in five years. Unless circumstances change, the Directors expect to seek an extension to this authority before it expires.

What is the Programme?

The Programme will provide eligible shareholders with an opportunity, if they wish, to receive new, fully paid ordinary shares in the Company (the 'New Shares') instead of a cash dividend in respect of all future dividends for which the Programme is offered.

The operation of the Programme will be subject to the decision of the Directors to make the Programme available in respect of any particular dividend. Should the Directors decide not to offer the Programme in respect of any particular dividend, a cash dividend will automatically be paid instead.

Who will be eligible to join the Programme?

The Programme will be open to all of the Company's ordinary shareholders, including Barclays Sharestore and CREST members, subject to certain restrictions for shareholders resident outside the UK as set out below. The right to elect to join the Programme will not be transferable.

ADR holders

It is intended that an alternative similar to the Programme will be offered for American Depositary Receipt ('ADR') holders. If this is not possible, the dividend reinvestment alternative offered on our behalf by our ADR provider will continue in order to ensure ADR holders continue to have the opportunity to reinvest their dividends in Barclays shares.

Shareholders resident outside the UK

Shareholders who are resident outside the UK will be able to participate in the Programme provided that they do not live in nor are subject to the jurisdiction of any country where their participation in the Programme would require Barclays to comply with local legal, governmental or regulatory requirements or procedures, or any similar formalities. Shareholders resident outside the UK will be responsible for ensuring that they may validly participate in the Programme and for observing all relevant formalities.

How will shareholders join or leave the Programme?

Instructions for joining or leaving the Programme will be included in the terms and conditions of the Programme which will be sent to shareholders and made available on www.barclays.com/dividends

What will be the deadline for joining the Programme?

In order to be eligible to receive New Shares in respect of a dividend under the Programme, shareholders' elections to participate must be received by The Registrar to Barclays (or, where applicable, input through CREST) no later than 4.30 pm (London time) on the election date for the relevant dividend to be announced by the Company, which will not be more than 15 working days before the payment date for that dividend (the 'election date'). Elections to participate received after that deadline will apply to subsequent dividends only.

What will be the deadline for leaving the Programme?

Following introduction of the Programme, shareholders may opt-out from the Programme at any time. For a withdrawal to apply in respect of a particular dividend, notice of the withdrawal must be received by The Registrar to Barclays (or, where applicable, input through CREST) no later than 4.30 pm (London time) on the election date for that dividend. Notices of withdrawal received or input after that deadline will apply to subsequent dividends only.

Will current participants in the DRIP automatically be treated as having elected to participate in the Programme?

It is intended that the DRIP will be withdrawn on introduction of the Programme. Subject to shareholder approval, it is intended that participants in the DRIP (both ordinary shareholders and Barclays Sharestore members), as at an effective date to be determined by the Directors, will automatically be treated as having elected to participate in the Programme without providing any other form of election. Shareholders will be given the opportunity to opt-out of the Programme. A full explanation of how you can opt-out will be sent to shareholders and Sharestore members along with the terms and conditions and will be made available on www.barclays.com/dividends

If you are a CREST nominee, and previously submitted an evergreen CREST Dividend Election Input Message for the DRIP, then this will need to be deleted by the CREST participant following the withdrawal of the DRIP. CREST shareholders will need to make a new election to participate in the Programme.

What will happen to residual cash balances held under the DRIP?

As soon as reasonably practicable following the withdrawal of the DRIP, we will pay you any residual cash balances held by The Registrar on your behalf.

Where will shareholders find details of Scrip dividends made available under the Programme?

The record date, ex-dividend date, Scrip Reference share price, election date and further information in respect of any Scrip dividend will be announced and made available on www.barclays.com/dividends

How many New Shares will shareholders receive under the Programme?

The number of New Shares that shareholders will receive for each dividend will depend on the amount of the cash dividend to which they are entitled, any residual cash balance brought forward from the last Scrip dividend, the number of shares held at the dividend record date, and the Scrip Reference share price to be used in calculating shareholder entitlements.

The Scrip Reference share price will be the average of the middle market quotations for Barclays PLC Ordinary Shares on the Daily Official List of the London Stock Exchange on the five consecutive dealing days beginning on (and including) the date on which the ordinary shares are first quoted ex-dividend.

The maximum number of New Shares to be received for each dividend will be calculated as per the worked example on page 14.

What will happen to any residual cash balances?

Any cash dividend remaining after the issue of New Shares, or which was insufficient to acquire a whole share, will be carried forward (without interest) by the Company and included in the calculation for the next dividend entitlement under the terms and conditions of the Programme.

Further details of the treatment of residual cash balances will be provided in the terms and conditions, which will be sent to shareholders and made available on www.barclays.com/dividends

How will shareholders or Sharestore members be notified of how many New Shares they have received?

Once the New Shares have been issued, a statement will be sent to the shareholder or Sharestore member along with a new share certificate (where relevant), showing the number of New Shares issued, the Scrip Reference share price, and the total cash equivalent of the New Shares for tax purposes. If the cash dividend entitlement, together with any residual cash entitlement brought forward, is insufficient to acquire at least one new share, the statement will explain that no New Shares have been issued and will show how much cash will be carried forward.

CREST members will have their accounts credited directly with New Shares on the dividend payment date or as soon as practicable thereafter and will receive a statement as above.

Will New Shares issued under the Programme be included in the next Scrip dividend?

Yes. All New Shares issued under the Programme will automatically increase the shareholding on which the next entitlement to a Scrip dividend will be calculated.

What happens if a shareholder buys or sells shares?

If a shareholder or Sharestore member has bought any additional ordinary shares and they are registered prior to the record date for any dividend to which the shareholder is entitled, the additional shares will be covered by the existing election.

A shareholder's election will be deemed to be cancelled in relation to any shares that are sold or transferred to another person, but only with effect from the registration of the relevant transfer.

Are there other circumstances in which an election will be deemed cancelled?

A shareholder or Sharestore member's election to participate will be deemed to be cancelled on receipt by The Registrar to Barclays of proper notice of the shareholder or Sharestore member's death, bankruptcy or mental incapacity or, in the case of a corporate shareholder, of such body being placed in liquidation. However, where the shares are held jointly with others, participation in the Programme will be continued for that shareholding.

Can shareholders participate in the Programme in respect of part of their holdings?

No, an election will only be accepted in relation to the whole of a shareholding. The Directors may, at their discretion, allow shareholders to elect in respect of part of their shareholding where they are acting on behalf of more than one beneficial holder.

What happens if a shareholder has more than one holding?

If shares are registered in more than one holding, each holding will require a separate election.

Can the Company change or cancel the Programme?

Yes, the operation of the Programme is always subject to the Directors' decision to offer the Programme in respect of any particular dividend. The Directors may also, after such an offer is made, withdraw the offer generally at any time prior to the issue of New Shares under the Programme. The Programme may be modified, suspended or terminated at any time at the discretion of the Directors without notice to shareholders individually.

What are the tax consequences of taking part in the Programme?

The precise tax consequences of electing to receive New Shares instead of a cash dividend will depend on shareholders' individual circumstances. A summary of the tax treatment, based on United Kingdom legislation and HM Revenue & Customs practice in place at the date that the Programme is introduced will be provided in the full terms and conditions to be sent to shareholders and made available on www.barclays.com/dividends

An illustrative example of New Share entitlement under the Programme

Number of ordinary shares held:	2,000
Dividend:	1p per ordinary share
Residual cash balance from previous entitlement ^a :	£2.40
Scrip Reference share price:	£3.04

Step 1 – maximum cash available (Cash dividend payable plus residual cash balance)	$(2,000 \times £0.01) + £2.40$	=	£22.40
--	--------------------------------	---	--------

Step 2 – number of new shares to be issued (Maximum cash available (Step 1) divided by the Scrip Reference share price)	$£22.40 \div £3.04$	=	7.36842 shares, of which only 7 New Shares can be issued
---	---------------------	---	---

Step 3 – residual cash balance carried forward (Maximum cash available less value of New Shares)	$£22.40 - (7 \times £3.04)$	=	£1.12

a No residual cash balance will be available for inclusion in respect of the first dividend that the Programme applies to.

Notes

(a) Entitlements under CREST

Pursuant to Regulation 41 of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001 the Company specifies that only those holders of shares registered in the register of members at 6.00pm on Tuesday 23 April 2013 shall be entitled to attend or vote at the meeting in respect of the number of shares registered in their name at that time. Changes to entries on the register after 6.00pm on Tuesday 23 April 2013 shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to attend or vote at the meeting.

(b) Appointing a proxy

A shareholder who is entitled to attend, speak and vote at the meeting is entitled to appoint one or more people (called proxies) to attend, speak and vote on his/her behalf. They need not be Barclays shareholders. If more than one proxy is appointed, each proxy must be appointed to exercise the rights attached to different shares. A proxy will have the same number of votes on a show of hands as if the member who appointed the proxy was at the meeting.

(c) Corporate representatives

A corporate shareholder can appoint one or more corporate representatives who may exercise, on its behalf, all its powers as a member provided that no more than one corporate representative exercises powers over the same share.

The right to appoint a proxy does not apply to persons whose shares are held on their behalf by another person and who have been nominated to receive communications from the Company in accordance with section 146 of the Act ('nominated persons'). Nominated persons may have a right under an agreement with the registered shareholder who holds the shares on their behalf to be appointed (or to have someone else appointed) as a proxy. Alternatively, if nominated persons do not have such a right, or do not wish to exercise it, they may have a right under such an agreement to give instructions to the person holding the shares as to the exercise of voting rights.

(e) Documents available for inspection

The following documents, which are available for inspection during usual business hours on any weekday (Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays excluded) at the Company's registered office, 1 Churchill Place, London E14 5HP, will also be available for inspection at the Royal Festival Hall from 10.30am on Thursday 25 April 2013 until the end of the meeting: (i) copies of the executive Directors' service contracts; (ii) copies of the non-executive Directors' letters of appointment; and (iii) a copy of the current Articles of Association together with a copy of the Articles of Association which include the alteration proposed by resolution 25.

(f) Total shares and voting rights

As at 28 February 2013 (being the latest practicable date before publication of this document) the Company's issued share capital comprised 12,860,662,729 ordinary shares of 25 pence each. Each ordinary share carries the right to vote at a general meeting of the Company and, therefore, the total number of voting rights in the Company as at 28 February 2013 was 12,860,662,729.

(g) Shareholder information

A copy of this Notice of AGM and other information required by section 311A of the Act can be found at www.barclays.com/agm

(h) Shareholder right to ask a question

Any shareholder attending the meeting has the right to ask questions. The Company must cause to be answered any such question relating to the business being dealt with at the meeting but no such answer need be given if (i) to do so would interfere unduly with the preparation for the meeting or involve the disclosure of confidential information, (ii) the answer has already been given on a website in the form of an answer to a question, or (iii) it is undesirable in the interests of the Company or good order of the meeting that the question be answered.

(i) Members' statement of audit concerns

Section 527 of the Act allows shareholders who meet the threshold requirements of that section to require the Company to publish a statement on its website setting out any matter relating to: (i) the audit of the accounts to be laid at the meeting (including the auditor's report and the conduct of the audit); or (ii) any circumstances connected with the auditor ceasing to hold office since the last meeting at which annual accounts and reports were laid in accordance with section 437 of the Act. This is known as a 'members' statement of audit concerns'. If such a request is received, the Company cannot require those shareholders requesting publication of the statement to meet its costs of complying with that request. The Company must also forward a copy of the statement to the auditor at the same time that it makes it available on the website. Where a members' statement of audit concerns is received it will be included in the business of the meeting at which the accounts are laid.

(j) Electronic communication

You may not use any electronic address provided in either this Notice of AGM or any related documents (including the Proxy Form) to communicate with the Company for any purposes other than those expressly stated.

Shareholders' Questions and Answers

Voting arrangements

Who is entitled to vote?

Shareholders who want to attend, speak and vote at the AGM must be entered on the Company's register of members by no later than 6.00pm on Tuesday 23 April 2013, or if the AGM is adjourned, no later than 6.00pm two days before the time fixed for the adjourned AGM.

How do I vote?

There are four ways in which you can vote:

- You can vote in person at the AGM;
- You can appoint a proxy online to vote on your behalf on our website at www.barclays.com/investorrelations/vote. You will need your Voting ID, Task ID and Shareholder or Sharestore Reference Number, which are shown on the Proxy Form. A proxy appointment made electronically will not be valid if sent to any address other than those provided or if received after 11.00am on Tuesday 23 April 2013;
- You can sign the enclosed Proxy Form appointing the Chairman or another person to vote for you; or
- If you are a CREST member, you may choose to use the CREST electronic proxy appointment service in accordance with the procedures set out in the explanatory notes on the Proxy Form.

If you vote by Proxy Form, you should return your form to The Registrar to Barclays in the enclosed pre-paid envelope so that it is received by no later than 11.00am on Tuesday 23 April 2013. You will find details below of how to withdraw your proxy if you change your mind.

Voting on resolutions at the AGM will be by poll. This means that you will be asked to complete a Poll Card if you attend in person. We believe that a poll is the best way of representing the views of as many shareholders as possible in the voting process.

What if I plan to attend the AGM and vote in person?

If you want to vote in person at the AGM there is no need to complete the Proxy Form. Attached to the Proxy Form is a Poll Card for use by those attending the AGM. You should bring the Poll Card with you to the meeting.

If my shares are held in Barclays Sharestore how do I vote?

All Sharestore members can choose to attend, speak and vote at the AGM. If you are a Sharestore member and do not want to attend but do want to vote, you must return the enclosed Proxy Form so that Equiniti Corporate Nominees Limited can appoint whichever person you name on the Proxy Form to attend and vote on your behalf. If you return the Proxy Form but do not insert the name of your proxy then the Chairman of the meeting will vote on your behalf. Alternatively, you can appoint a proxy to vote on your behalf on our website at www.barclays.com/investorrelations/vote. To be valid, proxy appointments must be received no later than 11.00am on Tuesday 23 April 2013.

I have been nominated by a shareholder to enjoy information rights, can I vote?

No. If you are not a shareholder you do not have a right to vote or to appoint a proxy. However, the agreement that you have with the person who nominated you to enjoy information rights may give you the right to be appointed as their proxy, or to have someone else appointed as a proxy for the AGM and to attend, speak and vote on their behalf. If you have any questions you should contact the registered shareholder (the custodian or broker) who looks after your investment on your behalf.

How will my shares be voted if I appoint a proxy?

The person you name on your Proxy Form must vote in accordance with your instructions. If you do not give them any instructions, a proxy may vote or not vote as he or she sees fit on any business of the AGM. Please see the explanatory notes on the reverse of the Proxy Form.

Can I appoint anyone to be a proxy?

Yes. You can appoint your own choice of proxy or you can appoint the Chairman as your proxy. Your proxy does not need to be a Barclays shareholder.

Can I appoint more than one proxy?

Yes. You may appoint more than one proxy, provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise rights attached to different shares. You may not appoint more than one proxy to exercise rights attached to the same share. To appoint more than one proxy you should photocopy the Proxy Form and indicate in the box that this is one of multiple instructions.

Can I change my mind once I have appointed a proxy?

Yes. If you change your mind, you can send a written statement to that effect to The Registrar to Barclays. The statement must arrive with The Registrar by 11.00am on Tuesday 23 April 2013, or you should bring it along to the AGM.

How will the votes be counted?

Each of the resolutions set out in the Notice of AGM will be voted upon on a poll. The passing of resolutions 1 to 18 and resolutions 20 and 24 are determined by a majority of votes. Resolutions 19, 21 to 23 and 25 are being proposed as special resolutions and will therefore require a 75% majority of the votes cast for them to be passed. Our Registrar counts the proxy votes received before the AGM and then counts the votes cast at the AGM. An independent third party, Electoral Reform Services, has been appointed by Barclays to monitor the shareholder voting process.

When will the results of the voting be declared?

The preliminary results of voting on the resolutions to be proposed at the AGM will be displayed in the meeting room shortly after the AGM. The final results will be announced to the London Stock Exchange and will appear on our website at www.barclays.com/agm

Corporate Shareholders

I am a corporate shareholder – what do I need to do to attend the AGM?

Representatives of shareholders that are corporations will have to produce evidence of their proper appointment when attending the AGM. Please contact our Registrar if you need further guidance on this.

Questions

Yes, however, questions should only be asked on the specific business of the AGM. If you would like to ask a question at the AGM, you can register your question at the Question Registration Points in the Exhibition Area before the AGM starts. You can also register your question once the AGM has started. Any questions raised but not answered at the meeting will be reviewed by the Chairman after the AGM and a reply will be sent out within 14 days. Shareholders who are unable to attend the meeting still have the opportunity to submit a question to the Board by writing to Shareholder Relations at Barclays PLC, 1 Churchill Place, London E14 5HP or by emailing privateshareholderrelations@barclays.com

Please try to keep your questions short and relevant to the business of the AGM. We want all shareholders to have the opportunity to ask questions.

Can I ask a question about my personal shareholding?
