

Tax compliance – international exchange of information agreement.

Individual Self-Certification form instructions

International Tax regulations require<sup>1</sup> the collection and reporting of certain information about each account holder's tax residency status.

These explanatory notes are to assist you in the completion of these forms and not intended to provide tax advice.

If you have any questions about how to complete this form, please contact your tax adviser.

Barclay Bank PLC and Barclays Bank UK PLC cannot accept a form if we have reason to know, believe or have actual knowledge that the information provided in the form is invalid or incorrect.

It is the responsibility of the person completing the form to ensure that the information provided is complete and valid and, additionally, to provide Barclay Bank PLC and Barclays Bank UK PLC with any additional documentation, information or replacement forms when requested or required.

You may provide this Self-Certification if:

- you are the Beneficial Owner of the assets held in the account to which this form refers; or
- if you are authorised to complete the form on behalf of the Beneficial Owner.

Do not use this form if you are an entity. Instead, use the Entity Self-Certification Form.

If you are an individual and a US citizen or US resident alien, please also complete an IRS form W9.

Should you have multiple residencies, please make sure you provide the relevant information for each one.

If you have a US tax residency in addition to other tax residencies, you should provide a completed, signed and dated IRS form W9 in addition to this Self-Certification form.

<sup>1</sup> The term 'tax regulations' refers to regulations created to enable automatic exchange of information and include Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, various Agreements to Improve International Tax Compliance entered into between the UK, the Crown Dependencies and the Overseas Territories, and the OECD Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information, as implemented in the relevant jurisdictions.

Part 2 – Tax Residency/Citizenship Information

- Please supply a TIN (Tax Identification Number) or functional equivalent if the country in which you are tax resident issues such identifiers. If no TIN is available or has not yet been issued, please provide an explanation for this in the relevant box below.
- The TIN is a combination of letters and/or numbers assigned to the individual by their country of residence (or its tax authorities) to identify the individual in the course of collecting taxes.
- In some countries this may be a number that is specifically referred to as a TIN while other countries may use other numbers (e.g.: Unique Tax Reference number, National Insurance Number or Social Security Number) to identify their residents for tax purposes. If you do not know your TIN, please contact your local tax authority.

US person tick box	(If applicable only) Tick the box if you are a US Resident Alien, or currently hold US citizenship. This includes if you were born in the US or are a US passport holder, or you hold dual citizenship with the US and another country. If you are a US citizen living permanently or temporarily outside the US, you will still be a US citizen, unless you have officially renounced your US citizenship.
Account Holder: Country: Tax Identification Number (TIN) or tick the box if TIN is unavailable:	(Mandatory) Enter the TIN (Tax Identification Number) of your tax residency alongside the corresponding country of residency.  Please complete this section for each country where you are tax resident.  You can enter as many TIN/countries as required.  When indicating a country of residency for which the TIN is not available, please tick the corresponding box and complete the next field for explanation.
If no TIN available? Please provide explanation below:	(mandatory if no TIN) When you are unable to provide a TIN, you must explain the reason why. (e.g. when you have not been issued a TIN, e.g. the jurisdiction does not issue one),
If you have more than one country of residence &amp; TIN (or functional equivalent), please provide them all.
